

Domino

Breed: Lhasa Tzu

Age: 4 yrs old

Sex: Male

Weight: 18 lbs

HERE'S DOMINO! This handsome lad is an 18 lb, b/w, 4 yr old Lhasa Tzu, who came from the Hesperia Shelter. When he arrived at LHH, he was screaming in pain. We took xrays and poor baby had a broken neck and was lucky to be alive. Off to Dr. Barry he went – the best neurosurgeon in CA! Now, you would never know that Domino had anything wrong with him!! Domino is the closest thing to a perfect pup there is! He is a gentleman, walks beautifully on leash – with a true pep in his step. He is quiet and gets along with everyone – from humans to canines to felines! He does enjoy stuffed toys, and bonds FAST to his favorite human. So much so, you have to watch your step, as he will likely be underfoot so he can be that close to you! He is even potty trained (but we never guarantee) He does have a big appetite ... he's "that kid" who will finish their meal and your leftovers too! His foster mom tells us it was hard to keep contained during his recovery because all he wants to do is play and love you! If you are looking for a dog to sit on your lap, that would not be Domino...but he loves to sit by you...and does not demand to sleep on your bed...in fact, prefers his own!

Domino is healed but should be caution not to jump up and down on furniture, although he can, he shouldn't too much.

Domino is a lucky boy...and any family will be lucky to adopt him. Kids over 8 yrs old great and he'd love to be part of a pack – doesn't like being left behind, but does not have separation anxiety. Just loves company! Is he for you? He's a knockout!!