

Arlo

Breed: Lhasa Mix

Age: 2-3 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 13 lbs

THIS IS ARLO...and while we don't think he is a very good songwriter like his namesake, this charcoal/gray brindle, 13 lb, 2-3 yr old Lhasa Mix – maybe with terrier but he doesn't shed – is a happy dog. A little skittish when you first meet him (he hid from me the first day!), he warms up quickly to his people.

Arlo is VERY human oriented and loves to climb on you and hug you like a piece of velcro! He doesn't like being left alone, but he could be an only dog if you are around much of the time.

He could use training, although we think he is very smart and is already on his way to being trained! Arlo would love to go walking, hiking, playing with you...and would probably be thrilled to see your kids playing baseball, football or any sport, as long as he is included. Arlo knows how to sit and is well behaved, but he is willful – if he wants to go one way that's the way you will be going! Training on the leash would be in order. All in all, Arlo is a wonderful family dog and would love to call your home, his. Doable?
