Breed: Spitz/Pomeranian Mix

Age: 3 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 17 lbs

MEET BENTLEY...a real looker! This cream/tan, 17 lb, 3 yr old, Spitz/Pomeranian (we think?) – is a real sweetheart. He was really a little big for a Pom...and looks more like a Spitz. But, does it really matter? His story was not so great ☹ ...but it gets better!

Bentley's original owner was dumping him in the shelter this past summer when she ran into a kind woman in the parking lot and she asked her to please adopt him, which she did. Cut to five months later, she has found herself jobless and homeless and was forced to bring him back to the shelter...where she ran into me. The tears in her eyes, and Bentley's story were so sad, I couldn't say no, even though Bentley isn't a typical LHH

dog. So, his sad story took a turn for the better! An Angel friend of mine came to my rescue and said she would foster him...and Bentley didn't have to go back into the shelter!

Bentley has a beautiful coat and smiling face and he immediately gave me kisses and has been an ideal foster. He seems to be potty trained, but no guarantees. He is very active/hyper and loves other dogs, so he definitely needs to have a companion canine. Bentley even understands a few commands and is very smart! He's good with kids (over 8 please), people, men/women and ignores cats! We were told he is a runner, but we haven't seen that from him. He just wants a home and a forever family to belong to ... could that be with you?
