MEET BRADLEY....who is a handsome, 15 lb, tan/white, 3 yr old Lhasa Apso, who came all the way from the Hesperia Animal Shelter. This boy was shaved down before he came to us....but he came to the shelter with a long, beautiful coat! It is hard to see in the pictures what a love this boy is. All he wants to do is please. He looks at you with those bedroom brown eyes, gives you a few kisses and he will melt your heart. Bradley is a cuddle buddy, and once he relaxes in your arms, he is content...until another dog comes around! He is curious and very happy with others...and he doesn't love being alone, so the best home for him would be one with another dog as a companion and possible playmate. Bradley came to us with a terrible case of kennel cough, so his total personality hasn't come out yet...but we know he is a great little man. He even seems to be potty trained, but no promises at your house! He would be great with children over 8 yrs old, a family who can dote on him, a dog or two to keep him company. Bradley will be available as soon as he is over his kc...probably first weekend in March! Does he sound like the boy for you?
