Breed: Lhasa Mix

Age: 2 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 17 lbs

MEET CURTIS...one very lucky tan/charcoal, 2 yr old, 17 lb, Lhasa Apso mix, who came from the North Central Shelter with a broken leg! This young man could not be sweeter or more affectionate if he tried, and it's a surprise, considering his previous life!

Curtis has a slight limp, so xrays were taken and three opinions given. This boy had a broken leg earlier in his life that was never repaired. We considered surgery but our orthopedic specialist said based on how he was getting along (he is very active and playful!!) he will be fine with no complications! Curtis is a dollbaby...loves to give kisses, play with toys, MUST go to a home with another dog! Kids over 8 would be great and a yard that he can run around and play in ideal. Once you meet this handsome dude, you will smile ear to ear...with a bit of training, he'll be a super companion to any family with the above criteria or similar. Curtis is a wonderful boy!
