Age: 3-4 yrs

Sex: Female

Weight: 14 lbs

MEET DAPHNE...the epitome of a Lhasa Apso!! Our little angel with a crooked halo is tan and white, 3-4 yrs old, 14 lbs and cute all over! This little girl came from the Devore Shelter, where they told us she picks and chooses her friends...and doesn't like men. NOT SO!! Well, like most Lhasa, she does pick and choose her friends (don't we all?), but she is wonderful with people who are kind to her...including men!! She doesn't like surprising movements, like children make...she would probably be best as an only dog in a controlled environment...perhaps a couple or a single person who are home a lot, as she loves being with her human. She could go with another dog, a male would be best.

Daphne is a lover and so very affectionate but you must go slow with her so that she can learn to trust you. This girl does not like surprises! She is doing well with her potty training at her foster home...but no guarantees at yours! If you know and love the Lhasa breed, this girl is ready to go. She is active, so a senior home would not be the best choice. She might even enjoy a hike or two...as long as you brush her pretty locks afterwards! We love Daphne and know you will too!!
