

Dashel

Breed: Lhasa Apso

Age: 4 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 17 lbs

MEET DASHEL....a handsome, golden red/white, 4 yr old Lhasa Apso, with a lot of spunk! Dashel is still a little wary of the world. He was found in the streets, dodging cars, and fortunately our foster was able to corral him into her car.

Dashel is extremely protective and is a bit shy of men at first. He will bark, but as soon as he is introduced properly, he calms down and is your best friend. When he is scared, he can be nippy, but he has never bitten anyone and is not at all aggressive. He was so matted when he was found, who knows the type of home he came from. That being said, he is wonderful with all the dogs at his foster home and even her 5 yr old daughter. That being said, he is not really trustworthy around children as far as we are concerned, so we are looking for a home for Dashel that does not have kids. Experienced dog owners only, please! If Dashel is your kind of guy, you will love him to pieces, as he is a very good boy and will be even better with some training so that he knows YOU are the boss of him....not the other way around!!
