INTRODUCING DELANEY...a charming 10 lb, cream colored, 2-3 yr old Maltipoo, who is as spunky and silly as she is cute! She came from the SEAACA shelter, and was extremely nervous there and growled behind the bars of her cage ☐ She was a bit on the skittish side for about a minute, then she climbed out of her carrier, did her business on the pp pads (now does it outside for the most part – but no guarantees at your house!) and settled down quickly. Plus, she was a mess...but she was great at the groomer and enjoyed her “makeover” and so far has kept the bows in her head and her body in our laps!

Delaney gets so excited when you come home or come to play with her! Sit on the couch and in 2 seconds, you have a best friend in your lap...then she is off to explore the next toy or towel or whatever is fluffy for her to relax in! She loves LOVES her walks – even in the rain – and never complains! Delaney might have been an interior designer if he was human – if she thinks the pillows are better suited for the floor that is where she puts them! She is not yappy or barky unless she wants your attention and you are ignoring her. Mostly, she is good with or without another dog as long as she isn't left all alone. She will whine for a minute and then calms down. She just wants to hang out with you...does that sound like a fluff you can cuddle? She's waiting!!!
