

Dobby

Breed: Shih Tzu Schnauzer ???

Age: 3 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 15 lbs

MEET DOBBY...a very magical little man. This sweetheart is tan/black, 15 lbs, 3 yrs old and can be any breed you want him to be! We're not sure, but he has a little this (Schnauzer), a little that (Shih Tzu) and maybe some Spaniel thrown in there for good luck! He does NOT seem to shed, but we had him cut down because he was a matted mess. He came from South Central...nobody adopted him so we swooped in and took him home! Dobby is a really nice dog...give him a belly rub and he'll follow you anywhere! He is quiet, happy, active, playful and he would love to have a canine companion with him at home! You, too! He doesn't love being left alone, but he is fine for a few hours if necessary! Dobby loves attention and will reward you with sweet kisses if you let him. He doesn't have accidents in his room...but he has marked in the house a couple of times. He should be very easy to train, as he is smart and wants to please. When he is outside, he pees ambidextrously, first his left and then his right leg; repeat!! Dobby would LOVE to have kids in his life...over 8 yrs old, please...but do you have any to share?
