MEET DUDLEY....a dashing dude who has been through hell. This 16 lb, white/tan, 5 yr old Lhasa Mix lost his leg likely after being hit by a car ☺ Throughout the whole ordeal, including trying to learn how to balance on three legs, he has been a gem of a patient. This is what he looked like when he came to us:

CUT TO: Dudley was adopted in April, 2021, and we thought it was forever. But apparently, after all was said and done, his mom reports he would prefer being the only dog. She had a dog, who Dudley was good with, but she got a puppy and a new boyfriend and unfortunately, neither worked for Dudley. He likes everyone, and likes dogs, he just didn't want to be the middle child!

Dudley is very people oriented and will follow you everywhere. His demeanor is mellow, loving, affectionate and sweet. We thought he would be great in any home! He gets uber excited when he is getting ready to go on a walk, he dances in circles! When he hears a siren, he joins in the choir...and, he loves socks! Not to wear but to play with!

Dudley is a wonderful example of a sweet dog who has been through a lot...Tripods are usually exceptionally appreciative! He will show you with lots of kisses and love. Best home would be one with a backyard, people around and older kids over 12 yrs! Oh yeah...a family who will let him join you in bed is a plus! Does Dudley sound like a winner to you? He is looking for a FOREVER home.
