Sex: Female

Weight: 12 lbs

THIS IS ETSY...and if you are looking for one of a kind, special baby...it's our little Etsy! What a sweet, bundle of love she is...a white (with pink bow), 12 lb, 3-4 yr old, Maltipoo, as best we can figure. You may think otherwise when her coat grows back (and she doesn't have such an awful haircut)! She was dumped at the Carson Shelter and her committed adopter never showed up ☹️ Their loss. This little girl will make any family a happy one. She is very loving and wants to cuddle with you, kiss you, play with her toys with you...and she'd love to sleep in bed with you! Etsy has learned very quickly how to use the doggie door, and she aims to please. But we never guarantee a dog is potty trained. She does love to go for walks and smell the flowers! She is good with everyone...kids (over 8 please), and she gets along great with other dogs. She doesn't necessarily have to have another dog in the house, but she doesn't like to be left alone – she would be fine in an active household that wants a sweetheart dog! Come and meet her and see if she is a fit for you!!
