MEET FAITH...and somehow, she lost her way and her home and, after months and practically starving, ended up as a stray in San Bernardino. This petite, sweet, gray/black, 7.6 lb, 1.5 yr old's breed is questionable ...perhaps the offspring of a surprise litter (she had not been spayed but is now)? Her markings are gorgeous (almost like an Australian Shepherd), her tail is still a mystery so we are calling her a TerriPoo. However, she does not shed, so she still might be hypoallergenic. Faith is a mischievous angel with a crooked halo! She walks, or prances, like a reindeer... likes to climb on high places (in our case, our mini refrigerator in our foster room), and can be extremely shy when she first gets to know you. Once she does know you...you are her favorite thing to "taste" and her kissing can go on forever! Faith came to us and had never walked on a leash before...she is getting better but still needs practice. We think she learned her potty skills to go on a pp pad, but she is now venturing out and using the grass. Practice make perfect She is very quiet, loves to kiss her foster buddy, and is very soft and special. She would be best in a home where she has a load of attention and isn't left alone - either with humans or other dogs or both. She will need training, but she is very young and aims to please. All she wants is to be safe and loved for the rest of her life...she'll do the rest! Does she sound like your next family member?
