

Galahad

Breed: Lhasa Apso

Age: 1 yr

Sex: Male

Weight: 14.7 lbs

MEET SIR GALAHAD...and he is without a question a prince to be reckoned with! This stunning, gold/white, 1 yr old, 14.7 lb LhasaTzu came from the streets of Modesto to Lhasa Happy Homes. The angel who found him did due diligence in finding this boy's family, without success. He was not neutered, no microchip and no collar ☐ He was a bit of a mess, but cleaned up beautifully, as you can see!! Galahad is not for the faint of heart or spirit! He is a busy boy, who is still very much a puppy and loves to get into everything! He would not be a fit in a senior home as he does require a bit of exercise. He's a big kisser and cuddler, loves toys, to play with you and other dogs and is cute as "prince charming" should be! With training, lots of love and patience, Galahad will be a fantastic companion. He is still puppy mouthy, so kids over 8 yrs old would be great. Definitely, a canine companion with great energy and playfulness, is desired to show this boy the ropes...and he would love a yard to romp in!
