HI! MY NAME IS GIDEON, and the humans think I am about 6 years old. I am a neutered, male, black-and-white Lhasa Apso that weighs about 20 lbs. I was hit by a car and left on the road, but some nice people picked me up and brought me to the shelter, where they put a cast on my leg, and Lhasa Happy Homes came to my rescue. That doesn't stop me though from chasing after my foster sisters! It took me about a week to get used to my foster home, but now I enjoy laying on my own healing couch. I like other dogs, especially dogs that like to play a lot. My foster sisters are 55 and 95 lbs of pure fun! I like my treats, but my favorite thing is to hang out with my foster mum. She says I am low-maintanence – whatever that means! All I know is, she found my favorite scratchy spot right between my eyes. I will sleep through the night without bothering you at all if you will share your home with me!
