MEET MS. GLORY….and hallelujah should follow this little niblet's name! She is a sweet, 5 year old, black/tan, 7 lb, Yorkie Mix who hails from the East Valley shelter, where she was dumped after being attacked by her owner's other dog! Owner decided one of them had to go…and sadly for her and lucky for us…Glory is our girl. She had a couple of little masses around her neck, but they turned out to be no problem just sebaceous cysts. The other dog injured her left eye, but with medication and time it's now 100% OK!!

If you are looking for a diminutive, happy, kissy, love nugget, who really just wants to love and be loved, Glory could be your girl. Those of you looking for a lap dog who can be a pocket pooch – look no further! If you don't want a dog who kisses you and always wants to follow you around, this isn't your girl….We have learned that Glory likes to bark!! This applies to when she wants something or to get your attention, or when workmen come into the house, or on a walk when she feels like she has to be the "boss." That being said, she is not a yappy dog. She doesn't love being alone, she will follow you EVERYWHERE – and another dog in the house would be fantastic – Glory is very social and kissed a new foster as he came through the door! She is doing pretty good with her potty training and will use a pp pad if she can't get out. She has been completely vetted and she is AOK!!

Does Glory sound like a special little muffin for you to love for all the rest of her life? She's waiting!!
