THIS IS JASPER!! What a dapper dude this fellow is! His coloring is grizzle, he's approximately 2-3 yrs old, 14 lbs. and looks like the real thing to us. He was stuck at the South Central Shelter…why he ended up there we'll never understand. But when I tell you that this dog is a gem….Bible….it's the truth! And, Jasper was healthy from the get go (except for a little kennel cough)! He was terrified at the South Central shelter and hid in the back of the cage so nobody could see him. We took a chance, and he's amazing! Jasper is a LOVER!!! If you don't want a spooner….a pupster to follow you everywhere (including to bed)….or a BIG kisser….then you wouldn't love Jasper like we do! He is good with everyone, quiet, happy, getting the idea of potty training but no guarantees, good in the car, good on walks and great with the other dogs BUT he really is Mr. Human Oriented and would do well in a home where he gets tons of attention and can give it back to you! One thing…he is obsessed with this toys and you will need to work on this behavior! As you can see, Jasper is getting ready for Christmas, so get those toys ready for him! Kids over 8 yrs old welcomed. With some training, Jasper will be the best dog ever and he is soooooo sweet – maybe even a therapy dog?
