

Jon Snow

Age: 2 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 16 lbs

THIS IS JON SNOW...and no, he is not a Night Watchman, but he is an adventurous dog who always wants to do the right thing! And being a Lhasa Apso, it is his job to protect you and he will! Jon Snow is approximately 2 yrs old, tan/white, 16 lbs. He came into the shelter an absolute matted mess, almost to the point where he could not walk ☹️ Now, he is very active and would love to have another dog to play with...but he is also very human oriented and loves his people. He gives lots of kisses, eats like he has never had a meal before and loves toys. What he doesn't like is being left alone, so if you work in an office outside the house, he would not be happy. We have been working on his potty training skills and he is doing well...but you will need to help him thru a transition, so you should be prepared.

99% of the time, he goes outside...but in a new environment, no guarantees. Jon Snow would be fine with kids over 8 yrs old and would love to have a backyard to explore and run around in! He is a handsome lad and will be stunning when his hair grows back!
