

Koda

Breed: LhasaTzu

Age: 18 mos

Sex: Male

Weight: 11 lbs

MEET KODA...a dapper, 11 lb, 18 month old, cream with a black mask mix...Lhasa, Havanese, Yorkie, Poodle, Shih Tzu...take your pick! We weren't there when he was conceived, so we don't really know for sure! He can be whatever you want him to be!

What we can tell you is he is a very well behaved young man who loves LOVES to play with other dogs, his toys and you! Koda came to us an absolute mess...but look at him now! Still has a short haircut, but hair grows! Koda is not a big barker, he is great in the car, on walks and with everyone he meets! Children 8+ and another young, playful dog would be the ticket for this boy! If you are looking for a lap dog, maybe in a few year for Koda. Right now, he is curious about the world, but treats it with respect! He even seems to be potty trained, at least at our foster home (no guarantee at yours!), but a yard and outside access will help!! Koda will be available December 13, but we are accepting applications now. If you are interested in a fantastic, young, happy dog, don't wait! Come and get Koda!
