

Lennon

Breed: Shih Tzu X

Age: 7 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 13 lbs

MEET LENNON...and while his eyes might not be perfection, he can see just fine! This precious, 7 yr old, 13 lb, b/w, Shih Tzu mix was born with a shrunken eye, which he cannot see out of...his other eye was injured and left a scar ☐ But, he sees just fine! Lennon can be a little wary of people at first, but it only takes seconds for him to be introduced and kissing your face! He is active, loves to play, chases toys and then isn't quite sure what to do with them, but he is learning! He needs a little work on his potty training habits, but does #2 almost immediately after going outside and doesn't go inside. He just needs a schedule and a couple of walks during the day...a yard would be perfect for him! He occasionally will bark on the street at a person or dog...he's just protective! Lennon is definitely a kisser!! He has great energy and loves getting and giving affection. He does NOT like being left alone and MUST have another small, active dog as a companion. He is funny when he looks out the window and barks at some strangers! Lennon wants to be in a home where he has a yard, another dog and a mom/dad who will cherish his uniqueness. He will be a wonderful companion and so deserves a happy life. Can you provide that to him?
