MEET LYRIC...a comical mix of Shih Tzu, Yorkie and Corgi? She's gold/white, 2 yrs old and 11 lbs, and has haunches like a Corgi...with a Shih Tzu tail and a Yorkie face! Shelter called her a Lhasa Apso! This little one had a benign mammary tumor and an umbilical hernia and the shelter made her medical "rescue only" but she is perfectly healthy. She is one of the happiest dogs ever when it comes to people... men/women...but not crazy about sharing her humans with other dogs. She is manageable and fine on walks when meeting other dogs but sometimes will get very dominant. She isn't even food aggressive, just people possessive! This kissy face girl will dance for you and even seems to be potty trained – although we don't guarantee! She does not like being left alone, so a home where she will be able to hang with you would be best. She'll keep your feet or your lap warm when you work, or love riding with you wherever you go.

Lyric is extremely loving, but around other dogs, she is a bit unpredictable, so we don't suggest kids. This little girl will bring you many years of happiness and with training (she is very smart) she'll be an even better companion. Do you have room in your life for Lyric? She'll bring a song to your heart!
