

Malcolm

Breed: Havanese Poodle X

Age: 4 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 9 lbs

MEET MALCOLM...and we have no idea what breed he is...his coat is soft as cashmere, doesn't shed and he is very small. He's b/w except his eyebrows, 9 lbs, approximately 4 yrs old and we don't know his breed for certain, except a cute one! General consensus is a Havanese/Poodle. He was adopted to the wrong home, and he is now back with us and ready for his FOREVER home! Malcolm is a bit on the shy side – we don't think his past was a great one. He loved his foster roomie, and he is interested in other dogs, but doesn't interact with everyone. He picks and chooses his friends! The ideal home for Malcolm would be one where there is another dog to show him the ropes and a human who wants an extremely affectionate, kissy, dog who hates being alone. He will whine to get your attention, but he is usually just happy to be with you. He seems to be potty trained or will go on a pp pad. We love this boy...he is very special and wants his forever home...yesterday! Do you and your pup need a buddy? Come get Malcolm!!
