MEET MARTIN...who, in any other world would be called a STUD because he is so handsome! This tri-colored, 2-3 yr old, 12 lb, Lhasa/Shih mix has the best personality ever! He will come into your home and it will be like he's always been a part of your family! He loves to wrestle with his foster friends, play with his toys and YOU! He is a big cuddler, whether you are in bed, on the couch or just sitting in a chair – he will find his way to you. Martin is kind natured and loves to give kisses on demand!! If you don't like kisses and cuddling, this ain't the boy for you!! Martin is a joy to watch because he has such a zest for life. He is equally affectionate with people and dogs, but he would be happier in a home with small, young, active canine companion to play with, and this is a MUST for his adoption. He'd be great with kids (over 8 years old, please) too! He is well-behaved on walks and seems to be on a good path to being potty-trained. So far, Martin is quiet, doesn't show any bad habits that we have uncovered and is generally a super dog. He lets you know when he needs to go out (stands at the door as a little signal). This little man is not just a "cute" dog, he is a wonderful companion, and you would win the lottery if he became a part of your family!
