MISO AND WALLY ARE A PAIR

PENDING ADOPTION

MEET MISO and WALLY...brothers, bff and lifelong partners! These two gorgeous, tan/white, 5 yrs and 3.5 yrs, 22 lbs and 15 lbs purebred Lhasa Apso came to us from Northern California. Their mom had an accident and broke her shoulder and decided she could not handle them anymore. Sad for her, lucky for us. These two boys couldn't be sweeter if they tried! They hadn't been trained or really raised with rules – but they are smart and have been wonderful fosters. They LOVE toys, each other and people! They are protective, but not in an aggressive way. They love to be active and entertained. If you don't have time for a pair...these would not be the right fit for you. They demand attention! They are curious, funny, love to play, love to be close to you. They do their business outside, unless you miss their cues...then they will go on a pp pad. You must have a yard and time to spend with them...that is the key to their hearts.
