

Noki

Breed: Maltese / Terrier

Age: 2-3 yrs

Sex: Female

Weight: 9 lbs

MEET NOKI – a sweeter-than-sugar, black-and-white, 2-3-year-old, 9-lb “any breed you want her to be” very special girl. She was listed as a Maltese in the shelter, but we know she’s not that... She could have some Maltese in her, because her hair is very soft but sparse. She doesn’t shed. She seems to be potty trained, but no guarantees! One thing we can tell you is she’s had a lot of puppies in her past, but that’s just what it is – her past! This little girl would make a wonderful addition to almost any home. She would be gret with kids over 8 years old.

She is extremely affectionate, is a true kissyface and believe it or not, she was afraid of squeaky toys but not anymore!! This is a spirited girl who lives to love you. She LOVES to play with other dogs and one must be in her future! She’s a very quiet girl, but will bark when she is playing. VERY cute. She loves to go on walks and is great in the car. She just needs a little time to get settled, and then she's calm cool and collected!

Well, maybe not calm...she has a ton of energy...but she does love to be pet and is calm in your arms. She really loves attention and training will make her a perfect citizen....Who wouldn't want this cutie?
