THIS IS ORION...and he has the cutest face, you just want to eat him with a spoon!! Orion is a tri colored, 14 lb, 4 yr old Lhasa Apso X. He was relinquished to the East Valley shelter by his owner because they didn't have time for him, grrrr. By the looks of him when they dumped him, we're sorry they didn't have time but we're glad he will get a wonderful home thru LHH! We have just posted pictures of the NEW Orion, who is a very curious dog and he loves to be in high places! He climbs up on our mini refrigerator in our quarantine room and just perches! Cutie patootie! Orion loves to go for walks and meet everyone on the street... especially the dogs. We noticed that he was a little bit too friendly with the boys...but he settled down and loves everyone – but most of all his human!! He definitely is a player and a kisser....LOVES his toys (to the point of whiplash) and after he gets to know you, will be your bestest buddy!! Orion is a great little man and we were lucky to get him out of the shelter quickly – he is healthy, happy and a good boy. Orion really loves humans of all sizes. He is skittish from time to time of loud noises but for the most part, he is the perfect pup! He doesn't need another dog, he is very human oriented, but he won't like being alone ALL day – a few hours is okay. Another dog who he can love will be great and kids over 8 yrs old are welcomed.
