ROSEY AND POSEY ARE A PAIR

...an adorable, outgoing, happy go lucky pair of mother/daughter Yorkie/Poodle? girls, who were thrown out of their home by their owners because they “just didn’t want them.” It’s no wonder they were initially shut down...but not anymore! Loaded with fleas, ticks and matted to the bone, they feel wonderful after their makeovers! Our wonderful friends in Bakersfield helped us get them to LA! We feel lucky to have them and will make sure they get the home they deserve. After watching them together for a bit, we decided that they definitely needed to be placed together, as different as they are at times! They get incredibly excited when you come home and greet you with lots of love and kisses.

Rosey is probably 4 yrs old, 14 lbs, and full of love. Posey is probably 2 yrs old, 12 lbs, and sweet as she can be. They love their walks, playing around, kissing and being a happy puppies and learning where to do their business (and they are doing great). Rosey even lifts her leg sometimes! So far, they are going out and using PP pads in an emergency! One thing, Rosey does have a preoccupation with other dogs and people on walks sometimes and that is she has to talk to everyone!! Foster said that Posey doesn't like other dogs except Rosey but we haven't seen that at all. She even gets on her hind legs to greet bigger dogs in the face! Both girls are going to spend a few days at daycare to see how socialized they are. While both can be very active and Rosey can be a little vocal at times, they are also happy to chill on your lap! And Posey will become your best friend and follow you anywhere for a belly rub!

They seem to love everyone as far as we can tell and kids over 8 yrs old would be welcomed. We will update as we learn more!
