

Sansa

Breed: Shih Tzu, Yorkie ??

Age: 6 yrs

Sex: Female

Weight: 10 lbs

MEET SANSA...a pretty little girl who probably married the wrong guy and ended up on the streets <!!> She is approximately 6 yrs old, gray/white, 10 lbs and most likely a Shih Tzu/Yorkie...but she can be anything you want her to be! Our little Sansa was found in front of an elementary school, long haired and matted to the bone. After a month of trying to locate her family, with a microchip that was never registered, the finder asked if I could take her. She is precious! She is so well behaved, gives little kisses, fits into the pack seamlessly.

It's like she has always been here. She stole a bone and is loving it! Only one negative...she is a flight risk! She will take advantage of any opportunity to dart out the door, so she needs training! We think the most important thing for Sansa is to have children (over 5 yrs old) and a family in her life. As you can see in the picture, she is wonderful with kids. Another dog would be fine, but not as important as a loving family who will adore her, care for her and train her to be the best little angel she can be. She is pretty good in the potty training and she is crate trained. The thing missing in her life? YOU!!
