Sex: Female

MEET STELLA! This stunning, coal black and white Lhasa/Maltese (breeds are known because she was purchased from a backyard breeder) Stella was given to the wrong household. She ended up being shuffled off to another couple who could not take care of her and at 2.5 years old, they decided to rehome her. Stella is a wonderful, sweet dog who is initially fearful of people, especially men. Once she has been introduced, she is a good girl, but it takes some time and massaging! Stella will bark at strangers but she is as smart as she is beautiful and she will listen.

Training will do her wonders and help to make her the best companion she can be. She needs parameters and direction, and with patience and some due diligence, Stella will be a stellar companion! Do you have a place in your heart for her?
