THIS IS TAYLOR….who will swiftly find her way into your heart. At 4 yrs old, this tan/black, 13 lbs, Havanese Mix was rescued from the Baldwin Park Shelter after she was hit by a car. With road rash on her hind end and a broken pelvis, this little lady didn't complain even for a moment. She was just happy to be out of the shelter and in your arms, giving you lots of kisses and love. She did have an open abrasion on her back leg which needed sutures, but she was lucky and did not require surgery. She is now bearing weight on her leg, trying to play with her foster buddies and loving her foster mom and dad. She is quite shy at first, but once she is familiar with you, she bonds like super glue! Taylor would fit into almost any home, as long as she has canine friends her size, a family to love and play with her. She is not a barker, she seems to be potty trained (but no guarantees) and she would even be fine with kids over 8 yrs old. This baby girl is an angel, so if you are looking to be blessed with a wonderful addition to your family, Taylor is your girl! She is now healed and available for adoption!
