MEET CONNOR & TREY!

Are you looking for a new best friend...maybe two? This bonded pair came to us separately, but they quickly became BFF. Two dogs are better (and more fun) than one...and just as easy! They keep each other company and entertained when you aren't around!

Connor is a 3 year old, cream colored, 13 lb Terrier mix, with lots of playful energy. He loves to run, chase and play tug-of-war nicely with his bestie, Trey! Loves going for long walks on the beach, can do about two miles and would be a great running/walking/hiking buddy! That being said, the thing he loves more than anything is getting belly rubs and snuggling on the couch. He has an exceptionally loving personality and enjoys taking naps in the sun!

Trey is a 2.5 yr old, 19 lb, white Poodle mix, who was hit by a car on New Year's Day and left on the side of the road to die. A Good Samaritan saw him and took him to an emergency vet, who unfortunately had to amputate his right back leg. Believe it or not, he quickly bounced back and can walk and even run like other dogs – nothing holds him back! With his new buddy, he stays fit by playing chase, fetch and Connor even taught him how to go up and down stairs! He's in great shape and most people he meets don't even notice he's a tripod! Initially, Trey has a shy personality, but once he gets to know you he'll come in for snuggles! He can also have his independent times and sometimes just likes to chill at the end of the couch or bed...of course, when he's not playing with Connor!

And, if you work from home and have zoom calls, Connor and Trey keep themselves entertained. If you work outside the home, they can be left alone together a few hours. They do need several walks daily to prevent those "accidents" (no guarantees!) Remember, dogs enjoy being part of a pack and these two are packed up and ready to go to their forever home. Might that be with you? Please don't ask us to split them up! They REALLY love each other! WILL YOU LET THEM LOVE YOU??
