THIS IS TUCCI….formerly “Sushi” (but you can’t name a boy dog Sushi!!)…who was turned in by his owner because he does not like big dogs and they had a Pitbull. They were afraid that Tucci would get hurt. This 3 yr old, gray/white, 10.5 lb boy, Havanese X acts exactly like a puppy!! He loves to play with you, give you a “high 5,” and give kisses like he’s always known you! We were told that he is potty trained thru a doggie door, and he has been great with his foster going on pp pads, but we never guarantee. Tucci is pretty quiet and definitely not yappy; he is a very human oriented and loves to be with you. He is great with other dogs too – in fact, he doesn’t even argue when his foster mate humps him! He does not like it, but he is pretty submissive. Tucci needs a home where he will get oodles of attention and play…and where there is another small, young, dog who is active for him to play with. He is interested in toys, but still not that familiar. We will update more as we learn more about him…but so far, he’s a definite keeper! Even likes kids over 8 yrs old!
