MEET TUCKER...a debonair, classy, 16 lb, 4-5 yr old, black and white Poodle/Bichon ? mix, who was found running down the middle of the street, practically begging cars to hit him! His rescue angel picked him up and took him home and shortly thereafter fell in love with him! Unfortunately, all of her family didn't, so she reached out to us for help. Tucker has the sweetest face you have ever seen, and eyes that look right thru you. He is a very well behaved fellow who loves long walks and checking out everything around him. He gets along well with other dogs, but he doesn't like them directly in his face. He really loves them – even big dogs – and he gives them sweet gentle kisses to say hello! We think he would be happiest with a partner to be his companion. He seems to be potty trained, but we never guarantee! He is interested in toys but we haven't seen him engage too much. He is starting to give kisses but is not what we would call a kisser. Tucker wants to belong. He would be good with older kids 8+ and he is quiet – unless he wants to be fed, get your attention or go out! He is what we call a turn-key dog. He has great pep to his step and is just a lovely dog. Might he be the one to make your house a home?
