

Tyson

Breed: Lhasa

Age: 2-3 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 12 lbs

THIS IS TYSON...and as you can tell by just looking at these pictures, he is a character! Tyson is a 12 lb, 2-3 yr old, tri colored, Lhasa Apso. His markings are beautiful...they look like they were painted on. But don't let that cute face fool you...Tyson can be very mischievous! Don't leave the garbage out or he'll let you know exactly what's in it!! He is very active and loves other dogs. He will take every single toy you have out of your toy basket and carry it around the house. He's not exactly sure what to do with it, but he is very curious! He loves to go for walks, is good on the leash and in the car. He might even want to try to drive himself! This is an extremely affectionate, cuddly, kissy boy. Tyson can definitely improve with training but like most Lhasa, he is smart and wants to please. He does have a touch of separation anxiety, so another dog in the home IS A MUST to keep him busy and happy when you are not around. Nobody is home 24/7! A household that is around to teach him who the boss is definitely necessary! If you hike or run, Ty can keep up with you! Does this sound like a buddy for your home? Kids over 8 yrs old, please...he will love them.
