Breed: Lhasa Poo

Age: 2 yrs

Sex: Female

Weight: 13 lbs

MEET VALENTINE...a 13 lb, apricot/white with black tips, 2 yr old Lhasa Poo, who came to us on, you guessed it, Valentine's Day! Coming from Lancaster Shelter, she had a horrible case of kennel cough, but now that she is feeling better she is all hearts and flowers! It took her over a month to kick the cough! Valentine is one of the sweetest dogs ever. Great with other dogs – and would be happy to have a canine companion of her own – in fact, she'd love it to be her foster sister, Pannini...but if you have a playful dog at home, that would be fine with her! She's wonderful with kids (over 8 yrs old please), a happy kisser and just a great all around doll. She seems to be potty trained or at least on her way there – but we can never guarantee at your house! That being said, she is very smart, loves attention and she will love you! Could she be your forever Valentine?
