Waffles

Breed: LhasaPoo

Age: 5 yrs

Sex: Male

Weight: 16 lbs

THIS IS WAFFLES…a cuddly, white, 16 lb, 5 yr old LhasaPoo, who was dumped in the Carson Shelter two years after he was originally adopted from there because his owners were moving. Apparently they don't allow dogs wherever they were moving ?? Their loss, possibly YOUR gain! Waffles is really a perfect dog! Seems to be potty trained (but no guarantees), loves to cuddle but can also be independent. Great with other dogs, doesn't care for cats; good with kids over 5 yrs old and loves to snuggle in bed with you. Waffles is not real interactive with other dogs, but loves having them as companions. He doesn't love been left alone all day. He's the perfect work-mate! He does bark to alert, but is not a constant barker. Honestly, Waffles is what everyone looks for in a rescue dog…make his sad story a glad story and take him for your forever pal!!
