MEET XANDY...the lucky puppy! This little pearl colored, 13 lb, 2 yr old, Poodle/Shih Tzu mix, came from the Moreno Valley Shelter with a jacked up pelvis...and we mean fractured in too many places to count. It was basically shattered, but no surgery was called for....just rest, rest and more rest. Now just imagine keeping a fiesty puppy quiet! Well, it has taken some time, but this little girl is a gem. Xandy is a well behaved puppy. She enjoys playing with her foster brothers and sisters, now that she has gotten used to them, but we have determined that she would be better off in a home that doesn't have other dogs. She is an attention hog and doesn't want to share her humans with other canines. The ideal home for Xandy would be one where there are older kids (over 10 yrs old please) and a doting family! She loves being groomed and enjoys cuddling next to you. She is very playful and loves chasing balls and ribbons (she thinks she's a cat). Xandy is doggie door and pee pad trained but is still learning her routines. She walks well on a leash and enjoys riding in the car. Xandy is a lucky girl, as she has been very loved in her foster home and by her rescuers. Whatever happened to her is in the past and her future looks bright. Might that future be with you?
